The Australian Centre for Independent Journalism (ACIJ) is a Journalism Research Centre attached to the University of Technology, Sydney. The ACIJ is fully committed to the principle that democratic societies require independent, critical and investigative journalism of the highest standard. Each year the ACIJ hosts the Public Right To Know conference. It brings journalists, academics and students together to discuss media issues and the public right to know. Papers from the 2002 and 2003 conferences are published in the UTS Law Journal and Pacific Journalism Review respectively. The 2004 papers will be published in Australian Journalism Review.
