MEDIA OWNERSHIP AND DEMOCRACY

‘The scholarship has been a success. It enables me to study communication and journalism. Most importantly, the scholarship provides me with an opportunity to develop as a resource Pasifika journalist.’

Kitekite’aho Tu’akalau, 2002, postgraduate

‘I have been able to broaden my knowledge of journalism issues. Being a Pacific Islands student has also enabled me to share my culture with those who don’t know about what it means to be a Pacific Islander.’

Christine Gounder, 2003, postgraduate

‘The scholarship came at a critical time for me. I was at the crossroads of my study and the AUT-PIMA award was the trigger for carrying on my academic journey.’

Mere Lomaloma Elliott, 2003, postgraduate

AUT-PIMA PACIFIC MEDIA SCHOLARSHIP

‘I knew I wanted to get into the media industry so I looked up all the avenues there were and there were many for Pacific Islanders. I saw this ad for AUT-PIMA Scholarships and I knew I had to apply.’

Leilani Momoisea, 2002, BCS

AUT-PIMA PACIFIC MEDIA SCHOLARSHIP

Auckland University of Technology (AUT) and Pacific Islands Media Association Aotearoa (PIMA)

For New Zealand resident Pacific Islanders

Postgraduate Deadline, 30 November 2004.

Details and application forms on the School of Communication Studies website

Auckland University of Technology

www.commstudies.aut.ac.nz